

Let our experienced Contracting Specialists take the burden off your front office

The Credentialing process can be a lengthy one that requires a focused and organized approach, followed by consistent and regular follow up in order to get the paperwork processed in a timely manner. Many offices find themselves adding an associate and needing their new doctor to process as in-network with their existing contracts as quickly as possible. Our teams know who to contact, what documents are needed and how to navigate the various scenarios that can present when adding new associates to existing contracts or adding new contracts in general. Let our experienced Contracting Specialists take the burden off your front office. Not only will we submit the paperwork quickly and accurately, but we will watch your EOBs to make sure that they are processing as they should.
